SHIVERSTONE CASTLE

SYNOPSIS

As if Stephan's parents' constant quarrels weren't enough, his mother now reveals that they're going to send him to boarding school, hoping to improve his grades. But the boys at Shiverstone Castle turn out to be a far cry from teacher's pets. After initial hesitation, Stephan is admitted into a secret brotherhood, and that's when the fun at boarding school begins, since the boys are at war with the girls from the nearby Rosenfels boarding school. While the girls are plotting revenge against the "Shiveries," the boys are planning their next prank. What they don't know yet is that they'll all have to be together at the castle celebration, of all times. A disaster. . . or maybe not?

THE DIRECTOR

Director and screenwriter Ralf Huettnner was born in Munich in 1954 and studied at the University of Television and Film from 1981 to 1985. Huettnner marked his film debut in 1987 with the fairy-tale tragicomedy CRIPPLES GO CHRISTMAS, for which he unanimously won a European Film Award.

As director of the television series DR. PSYCHO – DIE BÖSEN, DIE BULLEN, MEINE FRAU UND ICH, Huettnner won the Adolf Grimme Award in 2008. Two years later he directed the film VINCENT WANTS TO SEA. The drama was highly successful with audiences and won many awards, including the Audience Prize at the Bavarian Film Awards in 2010 and Golden Lola for Best Film at the German Film Awards. For his work, he was awarded the first-ever Metropolis Prize from the German Federal Association of Directors in 2011.
